Generous Space for Student Living

The large kitchen and dining area provides a welcoming hub for housemates to cook, enjoy meals and spend time together, with a large TV in the communal space.

All seven double bedrooms are fully furnished, with six benefiting from their own en-suite shower room and WC. Recently decorated rooms and carefully selected furnishings create a comfortable home with an impressive sense of space and character.

Jesmond Living Close to the City

Harrison Place is ideally positioned for students seeking easy access to university while enjoying Jesmond's popular cafés, restaurants and bars. Both universities and the city centre are a short walk away, making the location particularly convenient for lectures, shopping and evenings out.

The tree-lined road and absence of through traffic add to the appeal of this substantial Victorian home.
